'Politics' Charge Enters Teachers Salary Discussion

Palm Springs Board of Education members again tabled action on proposed teacher salary increases last night, voting 3-2 for postponement despite administration urging that pay schedules be approved "as soon as possible."

The second session of board deliberation on salary increases for 113 teachers ended as board member Arnold Rumwell attacked what he termed were "political delays" and denied allegations that he was opposed to an elevation of pay schedules.

MEMBERS OF THE Palm Springs Teachers Association, represented by Vernon Howeth, last night renewed their plea for increases ranging from a minimum six per cent to a maximum 10.2 per cent in a proposal that would add $66,380 to the school district's annual salary budget.

Board members Frank Muller, Herb Hass and Charles Wallace, joined in voting to override requests of President Fred Morrison and Rumwell to take immediate action.

CONSIDERATION OF the proposed salary schedule, first postponed last week, was tabled until the May 22 meeting.

"We have a definite proposal before us," Morrison stated, "and I feel that we have enough information to act upon it."

"This type of delay is political," Rumwell charged. "We have all the information we need, but it just so happens that there is an election coming up next week."

RUMWELL, REFERRING to the May 20 election for the board seat held by Hass, was answered by Muller's statement that "the information we received tonight has a lot of bearing on our consideration" and he expressed the thought that it should be weighed carefully.

Schools Supt. Wallace Mueller urged the board to take action "as soon as possible" following lengthy presentations by Howeth, association president Chet McCarthy and other teachers.

URGING THE BOARD to raise salary schedules to "a professional level," McCarthy pointed out that the board could get "cut rate education, if you want it."

Howeth compared Palm Springs school district salaries with other districts in the state, claiming that the local district has dropped from the top 10 per cent in pay levels to about the 25 per cent level.

But, in a comparison of current school year budgets, Supt. Mueller asserted that "chances are 95 out of 100 that Palm Springs pays higher than other districts."

SEEKING IMMEDIATE board action on the proposed schedule, Rumwell noted that "I have heard from a great many sources that I am opposed to salary raises, and I'm getting tired of it."

"Muller and I voted for upgraded salaries last year and we were criticized for it," he continued. "I made the statement then that I would not vote for any increases in 1958, but that has been qualified by a change of circumstances."

RUMWELL CLAIMED that accusations of his alleged opposition to pay raises were being circulated by teachers themselves.

"I am sick of it and I want to see it stop," Rumwell declared. "No one has the teachers more at heart than I have."

Rumwell was answered by high school teacher Ray Beasley, who pointed out that "we have 113 teachers, but it only takes one to spread something like this."

"We apologize for the few responsible," Beasley stated.

French Premier Granted Emergency Powers to Stop De Gaulle, Red Bids

Jets, Tanks Used to Crush Rebel Armies

Lebanese Start All-Out Action, Seek U. S. Help

BEIRUT, Lebanon. — Lebanese forces using jet planes and tanks swept through northern Lebanon today in an effort to smash rebellious tribal armies and drive infiltrators back across the border into Syria.

More than 30 American refugees from the shell-pocked countryside sought haven in the comparative safety of Beirut. But more were still in areas considered dangerous.

ONE INDEPENDENT American eye-witness confirmed government claims that 700—and possibly many more—Syrians had crossed the border into Lebanon and joined with rebellious tribesmen stirred up by inflammatory broadcasts from Radio Cairo and Radio Damascus.

A dispatch from Washington said Lebanon had asked the U. S. government for a shipment of tanks. The State Department was reported studying the request.

INFORMED SOURCES said Premier Sami el Solh would demand that Parliament give him a confidence vote today on a request for extraordinary powers to cope with the rebellion.

Government sources said the army had seized most of the territory captured by the rebels but strong measures still were needed to prevent the overthrow of President Camille Chamoun's pro-Western government.

CHAMOUN'S POSITION received support Wednesday by the U. S. decision to send anti-air equipment to Beirut and dispatch a task force of 12 amphibious ships to eastern Mediterranean ready positions where they will be available for action if needed.

Most of the Americans who fled to Beirut were Presbyterian missionaries and teachers in small schools in the countryside or in American boys and girls schools and the U. S. Hospital in nearby Tripoli.

Summer Meter Operation Policy Set By City

Discontinuance of the use of most of Palm Springs parking meters will go into effect on June 10, and this will give the meter maintenance department a chance to repair and put in order meters during the summer.

The City Council has approved a recommendation by City Manager Robert W. Peterson asking that meters on Palm Canyon Drive and on the west side on Indian from Alejo to Arenas Roads be retained during the summer months. Others which will be kept in operation are from Palm Canyon to Indian on Amado, Andreas and Arenas. These streets also were metered last year.

WAL, Employee Factions Agree No Settlement Near

LOS ANGELES. — Management and employee representatives conceded today no settlement was near in an 84-day-old pilots' strike against Western Air Lines, which claims to be the nation's oldest scheduled airline.

The dispute is costing the company about one million dollars a month in lost revenue. It is costing the Air Lines Pilots Association between $350 and $650 a month in benefits to each of the 263 strikers.

SINCE THE PILOTS walked off their jobs on Feb. 21, WAL has furloughed approximately 2,100 other employees, including stewards, flight engineers, ground crewmen and clerks. About 400 clerks still are on the job to keep offices open. Only 23 ticket counters out of 36 are in operation, staffed by district sales managers.

The 4,400 PASSENGERS normally carried by WAL daily now are forced to use other airlines or other means of transportation. While the pilots receive strike benefits, the furloughed workers are able to receive unemployment compensation, generally amounting to $40 a week.

Twenty-five western senators early this month asked President Eisenhower to name a fact-finding board to investigate the dispute, but the President said he could not intervene until asked to do so by the National Mediation Board.

Firemen's Fish Fry Scheduled Saturday Night

The Palm Springs Fire Department's annual Fish Fry will be held tomorrow night at Tamarisk Park.

One of the big annual events at the winter season's end, ticket sales are said to a maximum of 500.

With a menu of fried mountain stream trout, corn-on-the-cob, tossed green salad, French bread and garlic butter, and a large variety of beverages, the fish fry will get under way at 7 p.m. The firemen will have a dance in the tennis courts, to recorded music.

Each person attending the Fish Fry has been asked to bring his own table service. Tickets can be obtained at either fire station at $2 each.

Nasser Leaves Russia Today

MOSCOW — President Gamal Abdel Nasser left for home today at the end of a long state visit. Egyptian sources said he had won complete Soviet support for plans to expand his United Arab Republic to include other Arab states.

The 40-year-old Egyptian leader boarded an airplane for Cairo after spending 18 days touring the Soviet Union and talking with Soviet leaders.

ELECTION DOESN'T MEAN A THING TO BAR OWNERS

Local bars and cocktail lounges will be open Tuesday in Palm Springs on election day, according to the Palm Springs Police Department.

Voters will go to the polls Tuesday to elect a member to the Board of Education, and polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Under state law it is not necessary for bars to close during school elections.

Board Approves 2 Classrooms, Site Project

Board of Education members last night authorized action on construction of two Cahulla School classrooms and a sweeping high school site development project.

Approving plans for a $50,000 steel classroom addition, the board gave administrators the signal to open bidding Tuesday on the project that will complete Cahulla School development.

The board also gave its collective nod to plans for development of the high school grounds, requiring an estimated outlay of $200,000.

The site development program includes student parking areas, bus ramps, a physical education playing field, landscaping and various other improvement projects, scheduled for completion by early fall.

Classroom construction is also expected to end in time for the beginning of the fall term in September.

Oregon Holds Primary Today

PORTLAND — Oregon voters went to the polls today to choose nominees for governor, Congress and for local offices. A record 829,270 persons were expected to vote in the primary, but fewer than half were expected to cast ballots. The weatherman predicted fair and warm weather over most of the state.

Ingram and Mrs. Henry Cherry, home service; Eunice Crooke, Junior Red Cross; Harrison Dimmitt, disaster; Mrs. Hazle Beebe, first aid; Mrs. William Otto, public information;

Vote Comes As Civil War Threatened

Army Might Defy Authority, Back De Gaulle

PARIS — — The French National Assembly gave Premier Pierre Pflimlin's government a three-month grant of sweeping emergency powers today to head off a new bid for power by Gen. Charles de Gaulle or a Communist uprising.

The vote, which came as the nation verged on civil war in a setting already tense with violence, was announced officially as 461 to 144.

THE ASSEMBLY voted Pflimlin the emergency powers "to save the republic," while rebellious French generals and settlers set up what was virtually a rival government in embattled Algeria.

But, even with the grant of authority, there was no guarantee that Pflimlin could enforce it, since there still was the possibility the army in France might join the army in Algeria in defying the orders of Paris.

THE SPECIAL POWERS bill, establishing a state of emergency throughout metropolitan France and Algeria, was passed by the Assembly after only about 4½ hours debate.

Only extreme rightists voted against the bill, which establishes a situation somewhat less drastic than a state of siege — or martial law. But it considerably extends police powers and permits almost unlimited search and seizure. It also sets up the right to establish a curfew.

THE BILL WENT at once to the upper house, the Council of the Republic, and the government hoped to push it through all its formal parliamentary stages by late tonight.

A bomb damaged Pflimlin's country residence at Hendaye, and two more bombs were found in the Interior and Economic Ministry buildings in Paris. The bombs in Paris did not go off. Pflimlin himself was in Paris when the Hendaye blast was set off.

De Gaulle himself was at his country home in Colombey-Les-Deux-Églises under the watchful eyes of a company of gendarmes. But in Paris Gaullist Deputy Jean Lipkowski indicated the general would not seek a return to power through force.

Knowland Rally Tickets To Go On Sale Monday

PALM DESERT.—Sen. William Knowland will carry his campaign for governor to Palm Desert in a major rally here Sunday, May 25.

The rally, designed to cover the desert area from Desert Hot Springs to Mecca, opens with a chuckwagon dinner at 6 p.m., followed an hour later by Senator Knowland's address.

SCENE FOR THE rally is the small community park area located at the western entrance of Palm Desert, according to Co-Chairmen Cliff Henderson and Ted Smith, regional chairman for the Knowland campaign.

Rally tickets will go on sale Monday at a cost of $6 each. Proceeds will be used for the Knowland campaign fund.

WOMEN DISLIKE REMINDER GIVEN IN ADVERTISING

LLANDUDNO, Wales. — England's women Liberals Thursday deplored the way advertisers were using near-nude women to boost the sales of corsets and brassieres.

State Assemblyman

Backstrand Discusses State Finances in Lions Club Talk

Assemblyman L. M. "Lee" Backstrand explained the California budget structure and the financial problems confronting the State Legislature at the recently concluded and unprecedented session when he was guest speaker yesterday at the meeting of the Palm Springs Lions Club when this organization played host to the local Soroptimist Club at the Chi Chi restaurant.

Lions' president, Elmer Walberg, presiding over his last meeting before turning the gavel over to the new president, welcomed the Soroptimist members headed by President Elsie Addes.

IN A GESTURE of appreciation for the visit the Lions proceeded on the spot to raise enough funds to pay for half of a student nurse's training, one of the philanthropic projects conducted by the local Soroptimist Club.

In introducing Assemblyman Backstrand, Merritt Williams told how Riverside County's legislator, a native son, had long been active in county and state chamber of commerce work and was nationally known for his leadership in public affairs as well as being a recognized expert on water and highway problems.

BACKSTRAND USED charts to graphically explain to the Lions and Soroptimists the state's financial and budgetary structures and pointed out that two-thirds of California's income was fixed by constitutional amendment or by existing statutes while only one-third of the budget was controllable by the State Legislature.

"Ninety per cent of our budget income," he said, "is directly related to an expanding economy and full employment. We have had no new taxes in the state for the past 20 years and if we have a recession, the income of the state is restricted."

THE ASSEMBLYMAN explained that education took a big bite out of the state's budget as did highways, welfare and public health, mental hygiene and correction, with the rest of the cost of state government adding up to smaller amounts.

Backstrand also pointed out that with expenditures in excess of $139 million over revenue, California was now operating on monies coming out of reserve funds.

"WE CAN'T KEEP this up," he declared. "It's like a dog chasing its tail. To find the solution, we must either cut down on spending or find places to get more income."

Backstrand pointed out that the budget, as finally passed at the recently concluded session, was over $56 million less than the one submitted to the Legislature.

"I AM PROUD of the fact that I was one of those in the bloc of the Assembly that helped hold the line on expenditures," he said. "I was one of those who insisted that we hold the cost of our state government down as much as possible tighten our belts and effect savings wherever possible."

Speaking of the state's motor vehicle tax, Backstrand explained how these monies goes into a See BACKSTRAND, Page 2A

House Armed Services Group Views Compromise

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The House Armed Services Committee was scheduled to meet behind closed doors today to consider a compromise version of President Eisenhower's controversial military reorganization plan.

Committee leaders have drafted a compromise which they hope will meet with the President's approval.

CHAIRMAN CARL Vinson (D-Ga.) predicted the group would approve it before the day was over. However, he said the tentative draft was a working paper rather than a finished product.

Vinson and other committee members have objected to one feature of the President's reorganization plan which would increase the power of the secretary of defense at the expense of the present authority of the secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force. They have claimed this could lead some day to a military dictatorship.

AS A RESULT, the proposed compromise was understood to steer clear of any such centralization. But backers of the draft claimed it would meet all of the President's main objectives.

The House Space Committee held a closed meeting to move nearer final approval of a bill to set up a National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

THE NATIONAL Association of Manufacturers called on Congress to do away with the union shop and other "special privileges and immunities" which it said give organized labor "unequalled" economic power.

Donald J. Hardenbrook, chairman of the NAM's Industrial Relations Committee, told a Senate labor subcommittee in prepared testimony the "union abuses" uncovered by Senate Rackets Committee are the result of the existing "immunities."

Services Held For Herman, Bessee Slavitt

Funeral services were held this week in Los Angeles for Herman and Bessie Slavitt of Los Angeles, who for the past four years were visitors to Palm Springs during the winter season.

During funeral services Monday for Herman Slavitt, 63, Bessie Slavitt, 64, was stricken by a fatal heart attack.

Double funeral services were held Wednesday for the couple at Hillside Memorial Park, with Groman Mortuary of Los Angeles in charge.

"Riverside County," he said has been fortunate in that, during the period since 1947, it has received almost 180 per cent more money—or nearly $60 million total—than the regular requirement.

AT THE CONCLUSION of his address, the speaker talked briefly in regard to the problems on improvement of Highway 111, an important motorist link in this desert area.

Assemblyman Backstrand, now being prominently discussed for the important post of speaker of the Assembly, has served on many important legislative committees.

HE IS CURRENTLY serving on such Assembly committees as Transportation and Commerce, Agriculture, Military and Veterans Affairs and Industrial Relations. He is also vice chairman of the Senate and Assembly Committee on Transportation Problems and is chairman of the Senate and Assembly Committee on Highway Operations.

Backstrand is also the only Assemblyman serving on the Colorado River Boundary Commission.

He is currently campaigning throughout the county seeking his fourth consecutive terms as Assemblyman of the 71st District.

Nixon to Recommend Important Changes In U.S. Policies Toward Latin America

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Vice President Richard M. Nixon appeared likely today to recommend important changes in U. S. policies toward Latin America when he makes his formal report to President Eisenhower.

The nature of these changes not immediately disclosed by Nixon in his first public appearances following a triumphant welcome-home greeting Thursday.

BUT HE SAID the United States must reappraise its Latin American policies. He said he told President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles at a White House lunch that Latin America has moved "from an area in which it was always important up to a top priority position."

He said the riots which attended his visits to Lima, Peru and Caracas, Venezuela, "show that part of the world needs more attention than it has been receiving."

THE VICE PRESIDENT disclosed he was planning to give the President a written confidential report in the near future. He said he was willing to give his views privately to interested congressmen but did not expect to testify before any committees.

down with work and too ill at the time.

"So until we could get the right man to manage Pat Brown's campaign I didn't want to emphasize the campaign of Judge Mosk as his successor. We now have George Gannon handling Pat Brown's campaign and while both these candidates have been endorsed by the Democratic Council their campaigns will be kept separate until after the June 3 primaries.

'Being Blind Is Kind of Nuisance--With Advantages'

By AL LE ANCE

Jim Duncan, 36-year-old Desert Hot Springs masseur, confesses that being blind is "kind of a nuisance" but has its advantages too.

"I can handle twice as much business because I can massage both men and women," he explained with a grin. "So it is something of an assistance."

Duncan, husky, amiable father of two children, has been operating the massage parlor at Desert Highlands Hot Springs for the past two years.

HE WAS WORKING as a steamfitter when an auto accident deprived him of his sight in 1953. "I was kind of depressed for a while," he recalled, "but then I decided it could have been worse. "I would much rather be blind than crippled," he said, "because I can still work."

DUNCAN FELT that since he was used to working with his hands, he should continue in some sort of manual occupation.

During his convalescence, he came to the desert with a friend and was introduced to a local masseur that gave the ex-steamfitter the answer to his problem.

Duncan enrolled in the Los Angeles College of Physio-Therapy and soon emerged with a degree, thanks to the help of his wife, his friends and fellow Masons.

"THEY GAVE ME plenty of encouragement when I really needed it," Duncan remarked. "I was lucky — I had lots of friends and a lot of help from many people."

Duncan said he "worked around Los Angeles for a while, "but things weren't working out as they should.

"I knew my work, all right," he mused, "but there were many things I didn't know. For one thing, I didn't know my way around with a cane."

"IT'S A NUISANCE," but being blind doesn't mean a man's life is done, claims Jim Duncan, 36-year-old Desert Hot Springs masseur. Duncan, shown working on one of his many customers, is a former steamfitter who lost his sight in a 1953 auto crash. In some ways, Duncan said, blindness even has its assets. (Desert Sun Photo)

SO DUNCAN WENT back to school, this time to the Oakland Orientation Center for the Adult at Desert Highlands. He soon earned a reputation as an excellent masseur.

But he still has problems.

"IT'S DIFFICULT to find my way around Desert Hot Springs because there are no sidewalks in many areas," he said, explaining that a cane is a poor guide on a dirt path.

Duncan thought about getting a seeing-eye dog, but being blind has its economical drawbacks and a dog can be expensive to keep up.

"I would like to have one," he admitted. "A dog would be a nice companion too."

MEANWHILE, DUNCAN feels that his independence is the most important thing. He is able to support himself and find enough recreation to make his off-duty hours enjoyable.

He goes to movies pretty often and likes to "watch" television.

"I can usually tell what's going on," he said, "and I really enjoy listening to all the shows."

Duncan finds a good deal of pleasure in music too, and someday he hopes to return to his old hobby of raising dahlias. He was a constant prizewinner at Southland fairs before his accident.

"I HAVE MY record player going most of the time," he said, "and I want to learn how to play the accordion. It's going to be difficult, but I want to try."

Right now, Duncan is spending a good deal of his time plugging White Cane Week, which is currently being observed across the nation, and the White Cane organization.

"I think it's a wonderful organization," Duncan remarked. "It certainly does a lot to help the blind help themselves."

Duncan returned to Desert Hot Springs in 1956 and went to work

Car Dealers Prove What Can Be Done

Several months ago car dealers of the Palm Springs area banded together in an all out attempt to fight what was promising to be a depression in their industry. Realizing the recession movement ahead of other retailers they forgot their differences and proceeded to map out an educational program which was designed to "sell more cars."

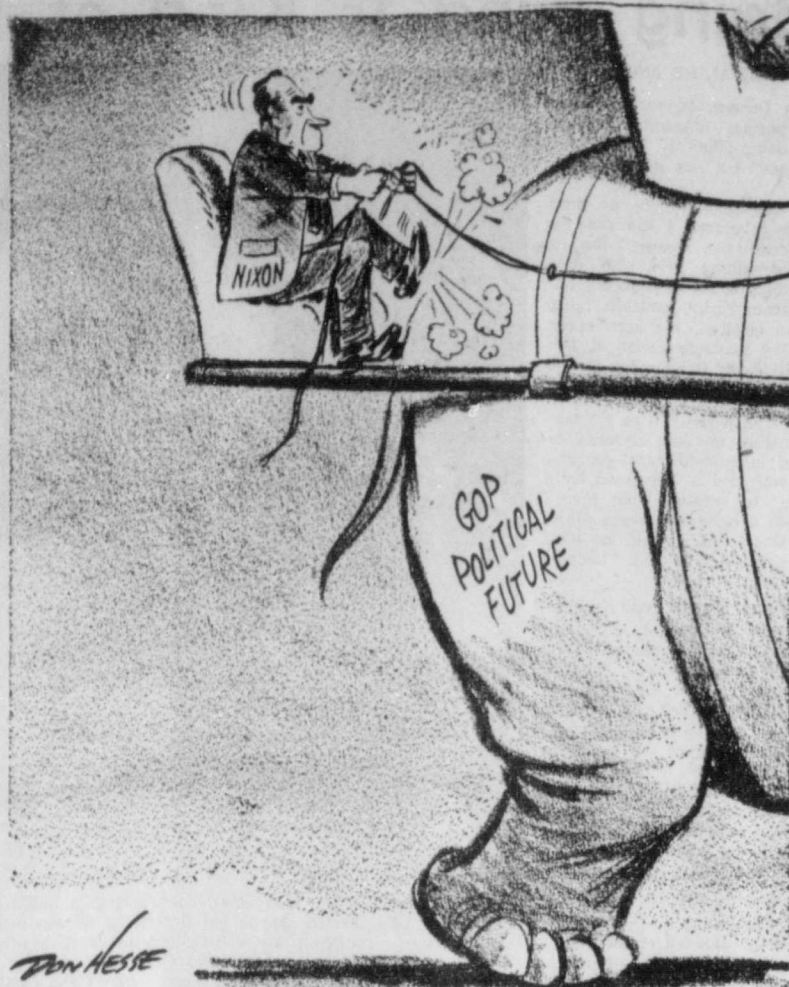

Realizing that much of the local business was going out of town they pointed out the various reasons why buying from local dealers was the cheapest way in the long run.

During this campaign they have proved that the original investment of buying from a local dealer was as good if not better than buying from outside dealers. Financing cars through local dealers is much more economical. Service facilities of local dealers is far more satisfactory and much more convenient. And last, but not least, there is no substitute for the personal friendly attention you can get only by dealing with a local car agency.

Our local car dealers have set an excellent example of what can be done when a group of merchants in a single field band together and work for one goal. Your local dealer deserves your support. Next time you buy a car purchase it from a local dealer.

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

We have gnats
And also knots,
But no gnats
Or any gnats.

Pardon me, but a headline in The Desert Sun started me to ruminate about words and to decide that it's no wonder the kids in school have trouble learning to read or to spell.

THE HEADLINE, on the editorial page, alluded to the "Knotty Gnat Problem."

Now why, if it's knotty, isn't it knots? Or, if it's gnats why not gnotty?

By the way, that word ruminates up there near the top reminds me that a ruminant is either a person who ponders deeply over a problem or a bovine, addicted to giving milk.

But that's aside from the topic at hand.

THAT LETTER 'N' must be sort of wobbly. It often comes equipped with a K, G and P coupled in front of it. All pronounced 'N'. Confusing to foreigners trying to learn our language and how about the youngsters in school?

It's a knife, why not knife or pliffe?

Why doesn't the doctor diagnose it as pneumonia or kneumonia?

Then there's P. Words spelled with a ps are pronounced as if the take-off letter was S. Pt words start out with T. Pn like N.

But PH words do not start with H. They get away with F.

ALL OF THIS should make the kids gnash or knash their teeth.

Then we have write, right, wright, rite but no ronz.

It's like the New Yorker editor who saw a bit of juvenile home work which aroused his interest.

On a sheet of ruled note paper he spotted the letters "e-g-a-k-s-h-u-n."

"What," he asked his son, "is that supposed to spell?"

"Oh," said the child, confidentially, "that spells education."

Well—anyway, let's end this spelling lesson and say, as Harry Oliver does about the insects which started all this: "Gnats to the gnats."

THERE HAS BEEN some discussion of the dip where Sunrise Way crosses Tahquitz Channel and, as there also have been some protests from that area about occasional flooding, city officers were gathered there the other day to have a look at it.

Requests had been made for either a bridge or a fill with adequate culverts.

PAUL PAYNE of the Palm Springs Water Company came along about then.

"Why not build a dam?" he suggested.

"Bermuda Dunes has a lake, Eldorado has several. Indian Wells has some."

"This would be a natural. A nice long, wide lake for boating, swimming, other aquatic sports."

"Could even bring a new event to Palm Springs—a fishing derby."

I won't swear he said all this—but that is what I am told. It's an idea.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Tokyo is the world's greatest nightclub. Each night the clubs open on the little paper-lanterned alleys. The small eating houses and street stands of fragrant oden and yakitori are jammed with pretty girls.

Girls are the rock 'n' roll heart of the nightclub business.

A VERY TOP GIRL may make 300,000 yen a month—$1,000 U. S.

An office secretary in Tokyo makes only 10,000 a month. The prettiest girls head for the nightclubs.

Nightclub girls get 1000 yen an hour. For sitting or dancing with the customer. The nightclub collects 200 of this.

DRINKS COST THE customer about $1 U. S. There are all sorts of side costs. A small plate of peanuts appears on the bill for another $1. Like most nightclubs from the Ginza to 32nd street, there is always a small or large clip.

The biggest clubs are Benibasha and Ginbasha, Conacabana and the spectacular Monte Carlo. (Where Saturday night features 100 strip teasers working all at once. A most amazing performance).

THE CLUBS HAVE excellent orchestras and are elegantly furnished.

The hostesses are well dressed. And in spite of their income, are constantly in hock. They are wildly superstitious.

At 1000 yen per hour, I interviewed one of the 150 girls at the plush Benibasha the other night. Her $50 kimono was in a pawn shop. She owed the management another $50 for advances.

(WHEN SHE SAW what line this questioning was taking, she volunteered that she also had a sick mother. It was pitiful but had too much soap opera to be true.)

"Also must pay girl friend back 10,000 yen tonight."

"You are on the shorts for 10,000."

"No. I have. But must not pay now when club just open. Money going out mean very bad luck."

SHE SAID IT WAS also very bad luck is a gentleman should pat a nightclub lady on the pistol pocket.

"You know some man he coming. He drink. He slap girl here. So. Mean very bad luck! Mean no customer that night."

THE OTHER DAY I was reading a local American writer in "Tokyo This Week." An entertainment sheet give-away on the hotel desk.

"To call a waiter by saying: 'Boy-san!' is resented."

"Not so," said the nightclub hostess. "Yesterday all hostesses having meeting with manager. Waiter come, he say: 'Why this girl all time calling to me. Waiter.' Why she no call 'Boy-san!' Like Japanese."

When you want a drink, say: "Boy-san!" And do not pat the hostess in the Honolulu holster area. Patting on the shoulder is bad, too.

"DO YOU HAVE any things that make good luck?" I asked the 1000-ven hostess.

"Sometimes. Suppose customer make accident burn on you. Cigarette, ne? Mean much money coming soon. Also if make little cut with glass. Much money."

If you should be talking about monkeys—I don't know why you should talk about monkeys in nightclubs. But anyway, if you do talk about monkeys, there are two words for monkey.

"MUST NEVER USE word 'salu' because this word also mean 'go.' Bad luck."

You must never light one cigarette from another. That is bad luck.

But if you find two matches stuck together in the little match boxes—

"Means very good luck. Very good customer coming tonight. You put in hair."

She showed me two stuck-together matches in her hair and gave me a ravishing smile. A real, genuine 1000-ven-per-hour smile. "About my sick mother," she said.

"What makes you so sure those are the kind of promises the voters want? . . . The auto industry thought they knew what the people wanted, too!"

EARL WILSON:

Bring-Downs

HOLLYWOOD—I've been investigating "bring-downs" out here in the TV and movie colony—and evidently the big stars get brought down just like people.

Groucho Marx is one of the greatest bring-downs; I suppose. A rather strange-looking woman came up to him once and said: "Mr. Marx, I've never seen you before but you're a very funny man."

Groucho glared at her and said, "I've never seen you before, and so are you."

Ray Bolger, sitting with us in Chateau, remembered the time he'd played golf with Sam Goldwyn because he wanted a part Goldwyn was casting in a picture.

Goldwyn didn't mention the picture for hours. Finally he got around to it.

"Ray," he said, "I'm looking for a great dancer to do a wonderful role in a new picture."

"Yes?" replied Bolger hopefully.

"What would you think of Gene Kelly?" said Goldwyn.

Kirk Douglas told me that children can be great bring-downers, too. He was undertaking to show his son how to do some arithmetic.

"Oh, daddy," exploded his son, "that's the way old people do arithmetic."

Frank Sinatra got brought down a little when he caught comedian Don Rickles at the Slate Brothers Club. Insulted Rickles said, "What a figure, I've seen this boy in shorts — and he's nothing, and those old dames he goes with, I wouldn't trust him with my mother."

Danny Kaye and Ray Bolger were both starring on Broadway simultaneously some years ago—Kaye in "Let's Face It," Bolger in "By Jupiter." They were asked to perform at an actors' fund benefit and decided, since they were such big stars, to do "The Hallroom Boys" sketch — about young would-be actors trying to get a chance.

A few days ago the performance, the actors' fund got a letter from a sweet lady who'd seen the show.

"It's only fair," she wrote, "that those two young actors, trying so hard to get a break, be given a chance on Broadway. Why don't you help them get an audition?"

George Gobel told me, though, that he had the worst bring-down of all. A stranger came up to him and said, "Pardon me, but do you know you look like Earl Wilson?"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. One of the big Sunday night TVers tried to sign Dennis Crosby, but the price was sky-high . . . Abbe Lane'll double into the Waldorf from "Oh, Captain!" when Xavier Cugat opens there May 29 . . . Ed Sullivan will feature the Russian Ballet on his June 29 show . . . Cyd Charisse is flying in to help Tony Martin celebrate their anniversary . . . Venezuela's exiled Pres. Jimenez was at the Latin 1/4 with his bodyguards.

Singer Johnny Mathis got a standing ovation from a big Copa crowd that included Polly Bergen and the Pat Boones. Comic Joey Bishop, featured in the revue brushed off show business as phony "Look at me. A $100 tuxedo—and underneath, torn underwear." . . . Duo: N.Y. restaurateur Marvin Rapaport and stripper Sherry Britton . . . Is radio dying? One station's dickering to sell its studio to N.Y. State—as an unemployment office.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Drinking certainly won't solve your old problems, but it'll give you some interesting new ones.—Tony Pettito.

MIKE CONNOLLY: Crosby Had First Chance

HOLLYWOOD — Bing Crosby is kicking himself. He had first crack at Broadway's newest smash musical, "The Music Man," but was so busy playing golf Meredith Willson's agents couldn't even pin him down to listen to the audition records.

Too bad. Der Bingle could have bought the blockbuster for $250,000, one-fourth of the present asking price for the movie version.

Sandra Dee's invitations for a weekend splash-plus-community songfest at her swimming pool: "Please Come to My Cool-Dip-Sing." . . . Kuldip Singh is auditioning for the new Rodgers & Hammerstein musical, "The Flower Drum Song."

MARILYN MONROE blooped out on Fox's "The Sound and the Fury" and the same studio's remake of "Some Like It Hot" so Fox is pitching Dorothy Malone to replace her in both.

Ernie Borgnine's first date after he separated from his wife was with Katy Jurado . . . Hope Lange and Don Murray will be four in the fall . . . George Jessel, that route of the Serutan set, tells me he had a nightmare in which he dreamed he landed on the moon, colored the first little moonman he spotted, and commanded, "Take me to your leader's wife!"

DEBBIE MINARDO's ex-husband, Nico, has this to say about Debbie, Ty Power's new spouse: "She should make him a wonderful gal. I should know—I was married to her and I love that gal!" . . . Nico means "love" in the Hollywood sense, since he and starlet Kathy Gallant are as close as two single people can legally be and are listening for wedding bells themselves.

Flaubert's classic, "Salambo," follows "The Naked and the Dead" on Paul Gregory's production schedule. He'll shoot it in India, complete with 1,500 elephants stampeding all over hell-&-high-Todd-AO.

THE BRITISH, grudging hosts to a happy hit called "My Fair Lady," are bailing because THEY didn't think of turning their own George Bernard Shaws "Pygmalion" into a musical.

It's their own fault. There doesn't seem to be any writer on their own little title isle any more, to paraphrase Shaw's own "Pygmalion" preface, "to set the Thames on fire"—just yip-pin, yappin' Angry Young Men like John Osborne, Angus Wilson, Colin Wilson and the like. Pipp-pip and cheers, old dears.

THEY'RE TOUTING the "Anna Lucasta" remake as a first for Sammv Davis Jr. Let 'em tout. Tain't. His first movie was something called "Rufus Jones for President" starring Ethel Waters, when he was five years old.

Phil Baker came back from Las Vegas flat broke and with a suggestion that the desert resort's gambling casinos adopt that TV commercial, to wit: "For the First Time in Your Life, Be REALLY Clean!"

TV TOPICS — Gracie Allen packed a white satin pillow off to the Tropicana in Vegas to carry the ring for the knot-tying of Jerry Boggio, her secretary-companion of many years, with Dr. George Check . . . Telewestern star Wade Preston will be slapped with a divorce suit any day now by his wife, actress Carol Ohmart.

ANOTHER Western: Producer Blake Edwards teleported Gun for Hire, with Craig Stevens and Hope Emerson . . . Eve Arden re all her wig-&-costume changes for her starring roles in the Los Angeles Philharmonic's "Aut Mame": "It's like doing the life of Julian Eltinge!" . . . Stubby Kaye tells the romantic story of the Hollywood couple who met and fell madly in love just two weeks ago at a wedding — HIS wedding!

EXPOSITION PRESS promised Lou Derman (the head writer on December Bride) they'll publish his book. Lou's comedic chronicling of his chaotic experiences as a postal clerk in the '40s has a terrific title: "You can't Mail an Elephant!"

An English-speaking kinnie of "Perry Como's NBC-TV Vagaries," shown on Italy's RAI network, netted nothing but bravissimos from the paesanos and pleas for more, more, MORE.

TV AGENCIES passed the word along to TV Row that they'll no longer stand still for properties peddled without a pilot. Sponsors, they say, insist on SEEING what they're getting for their gelt gamble, and who can blame the bankrollers for not wanting to buy a pig in a poke? Some of the funniest scripts I've read looked good on paper but lousy on the small screen.

Switch: Instead of crabbing at Donald O'Connor because he tunes in his hi-fi to the volume hilt, Don's Hollywood Hills neighbors keep phoning with record requests!

THREE YEARS AGO Barry Sullivan and director Franklin Schaffner teamed on TV's smash production of "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial." And that's why they worked together again, with Schaffner directing and Sullivan starring, on last night's (May 15) Playhouse 90, "Nightmare at Ground Zero."

Lee Marvin, who talks as straight as Marshall Dillon shoots, is a sad-sack over the fact that he's tied to a five-year teleticket and has to show up in the fall for a second season as the star of M Squad.

LAMENTS LEE: "It's dull playing the same character all the time and I oughta have my head examined for agreeing to do it in the first place. Never again, believe me—no good actor should. A series is only good for guys who aren't good actors—guys who can say those lousy lines over and over again and keep making that almighty buck!" . . . Them's strong words, pardner. Rebuttal anybody?

Andy Devine's Declaration: "The way people bring their troubles to me, they oughta call 'em Psycryatrists!"

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: My Mommy and my Daddy were married for 15 years. Then they got a divorce and my Daddy married this other lady. They kept on being nice to each other. My Mommy says the other lady is good and we should like her. My Daddy and his new wife moved to our block around Easter time and all the ladies on our block gave a party to let Daddy's new wife know they like her. Mommy wasn't invited. She said she didn't feel bad but I saw her crying. Was this a nice thing for the ladies on our block to do?

DEAR PUZZLED: It is sometimes embarrassing for the ex-wife and the new wife to be present at the same party so I think the ladies on the block did your Mommy a favor by not inviting her. Don't hold it against them.

DEAR ABBY: Every time I'm with this girl she gets hungry. Regardless of where we are, no matter how romantic and tender the situation is, all she thinks of is food. I love her, Abby. How can I find out if she is using me for a meal ticket or does she want me romantically?

DEAR NOT: Feed her first and find out.

DEAR ABBY: After thirty years of married life my husband started to chase some trampy young girl who works at a drive-in. He was just fine all through the hard times and raising our family, but now that they are grown and married he says we don't have nothing in common. I had major surgery about three years ago and was de-female. Could that have anything to do with it? Should I divorce him? I am very lonely.

DEAR LONELY: No matter what kind of surgery you had—you are still a woman, and also this man's wife. Don't divorce him. Urge him to talk to a clergyman, marriage counselor or his family doctor. When the fling is flung he will "come to."

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for three years and I love my husband. Recently a fellow I dated before I was married came to see us. He didn't know my husband but he made himself right at home. Now he has made a habit of dropping in all hours of the day and night. I never invited him but my husband won't believe me. I have told him that my husband doesn't like it, but he doesn't seem to care. This fellow is a nest and means nothing to me. How can I discourage him without hurting his feelings?

DEAR IMPOSED: What feelings? Tell him in plain English that he isn't welcome.

DEAR NOT: Feed her first and find out.

DEAR ABBY: I am a Protestant and my husband is Catholic. When we were married we agreed that he should keep his religion and I should keep mine, but I had to sign a pledge saying our children would be raised in the Catholic faith. Frankly, I'm sorry now and think we should compromise and raise all the boys in his faith and all the girls in mine. What do you think of this idea?

A PROTESTANT: I think ALL children in the same family should be raised in the same faith. The family that prays together stays together. . . .

DEAR ABBY: My husband is so strict with our kids that he makes me sick. He will hit them on the street—in the store, or even in the doctor's office. He don't care where he is if they get out of line. They come to me and cry about how hard he is on them and I am afraid they are getting to hate him. How can I get him to be a little more patient with them?

DELLA: Parents who punish their children are both cruel and foolish. The humiliation hurts more than the blow. If you can't explain it to him, ask your family doctor to.

CONFIDENTIAL TO CLANCY: This is no time to lower the boom!

CONFIDENTIAL TO "LEFT OUT": A "club" that is as "exclusive" as the one you described is not worth joining. Dry your tears and start your own club.

DEAR ABBY: I am a Protestant and my husband is Catholic. When we were married we agreed that he should keep his religion and I should keep mine, but I had to sign a pledge saying our children would be raised in the Catholic faith. Frankly, I'm sorry now and think we

County to Use Federal Aid Allocation For Santa Ana River Bridge Project

Use of the $169,023 Emergency Federal-Aid Secondary fund allocation to this county, made known last week, plus the $65,536 required as matching money by the county for construction of a bridge over the Santa Ana River to tie in with the widening of Van Buren Boulevard west of Riverside was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week on recommendation by Road Commissioner A. C. Keith.

Under the provisions of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1958 by which the allocation is made, the money must be spent on a single project rather than applied to a larger project involving other available FAS funds.

COST OF THE Santa Ana River bridge was estimated by Keith to be $280,000. He said it will be advisable to provide additional waterway under the present route. The project is part of a program for signaling Van Buren crossings and widening the boulevard on which traffic is now about 11,000 cars per day.

Keith estimated the total cost of the bridge and waterway at $520,000, and the signals and road widening at $440,000.

EMPLOYMENT OF a private engineering firm to design the bridge was authorized by the supervisors this week and Assistant Road Commissioner B. D. Powell was authorized to go to Sacramento to complete the preliminary discussions with the state bridge department.

To qualify for the Federal-Aid Secondary allocation plans have to be delivered to the Division of Highways by Sept. 1, 1958.

AMONG OTHER road projects mentioned by Keith in a report to the supervisors is the widening of Martin Street from U. S. Highway 395 to Lakeview with probability of making it part of a through connecting highway between the Hemet and San Jacinto areas and Lakeview area and Corona, to become a four-lane divided expressway within the next 15 years, estimated cost $450,000; the improvement of Lovekin Boulevard in the Palo Verde Valley from 18th Avenue to 28th and 28th Avenue from Lovekin Boulevard to Neighbors Boulevard, a distance of 7.64 miles, estimated cost $250,000.

Also bridges over the White-water River in the desert area and possible improvement of East Ramon Road, Date Palm Drive, Rio Del Sol or 40th Avenue as through roads in the Coachella Valley, cost not estimated.

Garcia Earns Top Sales Mark

Joseph A. Garcia, of Palm Springs, a senior at San Diego State College, has achieved one of the top records in the Equitable Life Assurance Society's history as a student salesman, society officials said today.

Garcia, of 3732 Sunny Dunes Road, has been earning his college expenses as an Equitable salesman, selling more than $350,000 worth of insurance during the past year, the insurance society reported.

Lofly Goal

ITHACA, N. Y. — (UP) — Ithaca's city marshal is Michael Kelly, 18. His chief duty involves serving subpoenas, processes and other legal papers, for Ithaca courts. He hopes to keep the job until he is successful in getting admitted to the U. S. Air Force Academy.

KOVELY for Sheriff

The Desert Sun Friday, May 16, 1958 5A

GUS BACKMAN, right, Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce manager, paid a surprise visit to Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce Manager Jimmy Cooper and found Cooper with his long-pants on. Readers will recall the controversy between the two chamber managers last summer—each claiming to have the most shapely legs. Cooper took one look at Backman's shorts, threw up his hands in fright and said "Those are the wildest shorts I've ever seen!"—which could set off a whole new controversy.

Legion to Hold Installation At DHS May 21

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—New officers of the Desert Hot Springs American Legion Post and its Auxiliary unit will be installed in public ceremonies at the Eighth and Cactus Streets town hall May 21.

Legion Commander Ted Fournier said the ceremonies will begin at 8 p.m. with an address by Frank Benedict, of La Quinta, Congressional candidate and prominent figure in veterans affairs.

Spelling Trouble

RUTLAND, Vt. — (UP) — Municipal Judge Edward G. McClallen notes that college students mailing in their checks in payment of traffic fines have spelled in these ways the name of his court: Minissable, Manissable, Miniscule, Manuciple and Munica-pel.

'Poppy Days' Proclaimed for May 23 and 24

Mayor Frank Bogert today proclaimed May 23 and 24 as "Poppy Days" in Palm Springs.

The proclamation was issued to encourage Village observance of the annual poppy sales conducted by volunteer workers from the Owen Coffman American Legion Post Auxiliary.

Proceeds from the sale of poppies, made by disabled veterans in eight Veterans Administration hospitals in the state, will be used for the welfare of veterans and their families.

In issuing his proclamation,

Mayor Bogert asked Village citizens to "wear a poppy in honor of our war dead, and to help the living victims of war."

New Realty Group Formed in Palm Desert

Slogan of Group Is 'Save On Sand During Summer'

PALM DESERT — Area real estate brokers and salesmen this week announced the organization of the Palm Desert Realty Association, an action acclaimed as "a new step forward in the development of Palm Desert."

More than 40 association members this week elected their first officers and simultaneously launched the association's first project — a Palm Desert area "Buy Now" campaign for real estate.

PRESIDENT OF the newly formed association is Ted Smith, long associated with the California Real Estate Board. Smith, longtime Palm Desert resident and Realtor, is currently regional CREA vice president.

Other officers elected to serve with Smith are Dick Coffin, veteran real estate developer, vice president; Jeanne Ahrens, secretary, and Dick Kite, treasurer.

MEMBERS OF THE association board of directors are, in addition to the officers, Roy St. Leon, Carl Henderson, John Moon, Martine Etchepare and George Roy.

is an area-wide campaign designed to prove that "summer is the best time to buy desert properties."

The association's "Buy Now" Campaign will be promoted throughout the Southland with heavy newspaper advertising, according to campaign chairman Edith Eddy Ward.

TO HELP ATTRACT potential residents to the Palm Desert area, it is planned to have community hotels join in the campaign by featuring special package prices for meals and lodging for prospective investors.

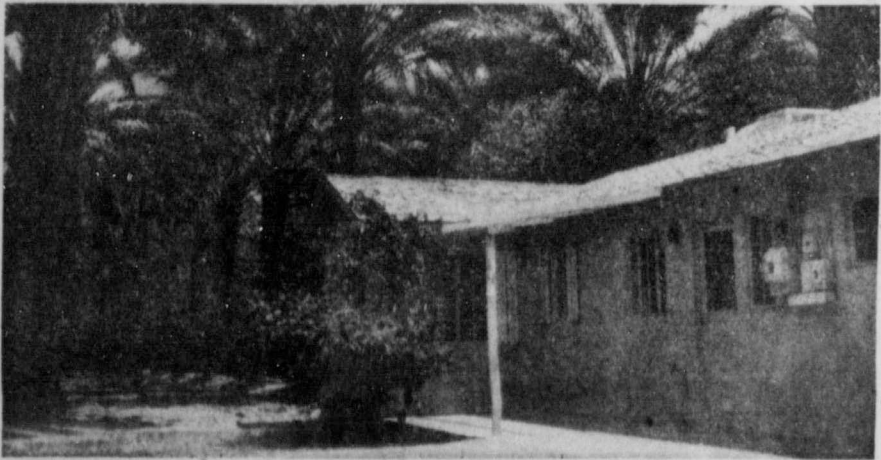

LEADING REAL ESTATE offices in the Palm Desert area have formed the new Palm Desert Real Estate Association. ### The Story Of...

Palm Desert

By EDITH EDDY WARD

Let's look back to the first year when Palm Desert was a magnificent expanse of sand, sun and stars that ended nowhere. In July, 1946, Cliff Henderson (Founder of Palm Desert) drilled for water and when the well came in and the water spouted 100 feet into the air, there was a real celebration and a new town was born!

For, without water, all the land that Cliff and his associates had acquired was practically worthless but, with water, it became worth millions! Then the bulldozers moved in and within a few months, 20 miles of paved roads were constructed and 20 miles of water pipe was installed — the property was subdivided into spacious homesites, income and commercial lots.

THEN CAME THE "two dates to remember," Nov. 16 and 17, 1946, when the first property was offered for sale and over a quarter of million dollars worth of property was sold within two weeks! Those first purchasers were real pioneers with vision, as there were no buildings in Palm Desert except the little temporary tract office, and the Shadow Mountain Club was only an architect's drawing.

During the second year, 1947, several homes were built and two hotels were completed — Firecliff Lodge and Twin Palms. Then, in July 1947 — one year after ground was first broken — a new post office was opened and property owners from far and near came for the mid-summer celebration.

ALL DURING 1948 work was progressing on the million dollar club house which was planned to be the recreational center for Palm Desert property owners and their friends. Then on Dec. 10, 1948, came the BIG EVENT — the Grand Formal Opening of the Shadow Mountain Club, which lasted for four days and four nights!

Without question, it was one of the most brilliant social events of the season in the West. It drew the largest roster of blue book socialites, business leaders, top ranking members of the armed forces, film and radio celebrities, publishers, editors, writers and photographers than any event in the Southland in many years.

IT MARKED another spectacular victory for Clifford W. Henderson and the men and women who worked practically day and night to help make the Shadow Mountain Club and Palm Desert a success.

Hedda Hopper and Edgar Bergen came to assist with the cutting of the ribbon, and Jimmy McHugh, famous song writer, composed the Shadow Mountain Song which was played for the first time by the Todds.

During the daytime, Club members and guests watched Vicki Draves, winner of two Olympic diving championships, and members of the Los Angeles Athletic Club swimming team put on water shows with Harold "Dutch" Smith as master of ceremonies. Monty Montana's troupe of trick riding stars put on their show in real western style.

BY NIGHT, HUNDREDS of famous people dined sumptuously in the magnificently appointed dining room, while outdoors there was a spectacle of fireworks of bursting rainbow colors and dazzling gold in the night sky and Janet Dee's water ballet troupe performed on white surfboards, floating atop the 135 foot swimming pool which was lighted like a huge aqua marine Jewel.

It was a never-to-be-forgotten event by those who attended and, since then, the fame of the Shadow Mountain Club at Palm Desert, California, has spread all over the world.

1948 ALSO BROUGHT the formation of the Palm Desert Rotary Club with about 10 members to start. Six of these Charter Members are still residents of Palm Desert and attend the regular Friday meetings of Rotary, which has grown to over 50 members.

That same year the Women's Guild was formed with a handful of members, which later became the Palm Desert Women's Club and now boasts over 150 members.

Then came 1949 and the Palm Desert Community Church was founded by the Rev. John Robertson Macartney, who founded the Palm Springs Community Church 12 years previously. The first services were held out of doors while the church was being built. The fall of 1949 saw the opening of the new $200,000 grammar school, with an enrollment of nearly 200 school children.

1950 BROUGHT the Korean War and people flocked to the desert — more property was sold in Palm Desert (14 houses in August) and the building boom was really on.

In the fall of 1951, the first business center was officially opened and was named the Palm Desert Patio Shops which included the first drug store, a variety store, the California Electric Power Co. branch office, an architect, doctor offices and a real estate office.

SINCE THEN, Palm Desert has been steadily growing — not fast, but sure — Bank of America built its own building after operating for two years in the Desert Magazine building, two grocery stores are doing a flourishing business.

There are four coffee shops, two beauty shops, a furniture store, four gas stations, a travel bureau, library, three medical doctors, a chiropractor, an osteopath, dentist, etc. — in fact, everything that is needed to service a fast growing community.

LOOKING BACK during the early stages of Palm Desert, it was a gamble to buy property here — no one could guarantee it would be a success. Now, after 12 years, it is an accomplished fact and assured success. So, anyone buying property now is not taking the chance that the early pioneers did.

Some people say they should have bought then when property was cheaper. Certainly the values have gone up after the millions have been spent in Palm Desert to make it more valuable. So has living costs gone up since 1946 — automobiles, food, clothing — everything!

BUT THERE ARE just as many opportunities today for a good buy in Desert Real Estate — it just takes a little more money in proportion to buy it, but the possibilities of it increasing in value are greater than they were 12 years ago! The possibilities of the future are unlimited and Palm Desert is ONLY STARTED!

We who have been here from the beginning feel that the BOOM IS ON and, five to ten years from now, we will look back and wish we had bought more property in Palm Desert when it was so reasonable!

Luxury Homes Are a Feature of Palm Desert

HUB OF SOCIAL ACTIVITY in Palm Desert is the famed Shadow Mountain Club, long a favorite gathering place for Palm Desert area residents and winter visitors. This is a view of the Shadow Mountain pool, as seen from the steps leading to the poolside from the club's luxurious dining room and patio area. From the sprawling grounds, visitors can view Palm Desert and witness its growth in the many new homebuilding projects now under way. Officers of the newly formed Palm Desert Realty Association reported that there are enough new homesites planned for the area to accommodate 3,000 new residents.

Post Office Is Barometer Of Expansion

New Building Needed to Take Care of Growth

PALM DESERT — As the best barometer for measuring community growth, Palm Desert's bustling post office today mirrors a record rate of residential expansion for this desert area.

Thanks to area development in the past few years, the post office has outgrown its quarters — the small postal building on Larkspur Avenue is too small to handle the daily rush of business, according to postal officials.

SO, THE BUILDING that has cared for Palm Desert's mail since the creation of the community will soon be replaced by a considerably larger, completely modern post office building.

The post office department has authorized construction of the new building on Paseo, just east of Portola, to accommodate the hundreds of new area citizens requiring postal box and counter service.

THE NEWLY FORMED Palm Desert Real Estate Association looks upon the post office expansion as evidence of the growth that has already taken place here, and an indication of the community progress that will be marked in the near future.

Postal officials reported that the new postal building will be planned to take care of future growth, "which has become a certainty."

Modern Schools Keep in Step With Growth

PALM DESERT — Keeping pace with the growth of this mushrooming desert community, the Palm Desert Elementary School is today adding new facilities to accommodate increased school enrollment.

The Portola Avenue school is currently the scene of bustling construction activity as contractors prepare for work on a new kindergarten and cafeteria for the west side of the building.

Palm Desert elementary school children are presently attending classes in eight classrooms, attended by what area residents regard as "one of the finest faculties in the desert area."

School district officials also issued a happy note for Palm Desert's junior and senior high school students, who must now be transported to classes at the distant Coachella Valley Union High School.

Starting next fall, these students will be transferred to the new, campus-style Indio High School, now under construction between Indio and Indian Wells.

Ted Smith Has Long Record Of Civic Service

PALM DESERT — Ted Smith, newly elected president of the Palm Desert Real Estate Association, has had a long history of community and area service.

He currently is serving as president of the famed Shadow Mountain Club here, and this is his second term (although not in succession).

Among other activities, he has been president of the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee, which serves as spokesman in county and state matters affecting the desert area.

Doubling of Population Is Forecast

Record Home Construction Is Under Way

PALM DESERT — You don't need a crystal ball to tell you that one of the desert area's fastest growing communities is well on its way towards doubling its population.

Palm Desert real estate brokers, who now rate 1958 as their busiest year, tallied the number of new homesites scheduled to sprout here in the near future and predicted an added 3,000 citizens to area population.

WHICH ISN'T REALLY very far - fetched when you consider that more than 1,000 new homesites are planned for the area stretching from Palm Desert to Indian Wells and Eldorado Country Clubs.

The newly formed Palm Desert Real Estate Association today reported that new subdivisions and apartment developments now being processed for approval by the County Planning Commission comprise enough homes to provide for at least 3,000 new area residents.

IN PALM DESERT proper, two areas now scheduled for development will soon have enough apartments and homes to provide a total of 765 dwelling units.

In addition, three new plans are currently under preparation for the Indian Wells and Eldorado Country Club areas of Palm Desert.

ONE PROJECT contains 130 homesites, the second provides for 165 new dwellings and the third will add 28 new homes to the area.

Association officials, looking forward to Palm Desert's most active summer construction program, are predicting that the next year, starting in fall, will see all past home construction and sales records broken.

Sacred Heart Catholic Church Builds Edifice

PALM DESERT — Honorary Mayor Bing Crosby's favorite community project, the new Sacred Heart Catholic Church, is rapidly taking shape on Avenue 44, just east of Portola Avenue.

Construction officials said the new church and school, located on a nine-acre site, is fast nearing completion.

CROSBY, WHO recently spearheaded a drive to secure funds for construction of the church and school, will dedicate the new edifice early next fall.

Church construction was speeded earlier this year with proceeds derived from a massive benefit show staged by Mayor Crosby at the Chi Chi in Palm Springs.

IN ONE OF HIS rare stage appearances, the famed, longtime Palm Desert resident headlined a show that featured top entertainers who donated their time and energy for Crosby's pet project.

The new church building is expected to be one of the most beautiful anywhere in the desert area.

Palm Desert CofC Initiative Gets Results

PALM DESERT C OF C 18-3 ...

PALM DESERT — A valuable asset to any community is a strong Chamber of Commerce, and Palm Desert has been fortunate in having one which has consistently taken the lead in community and area problems.

The Palm Desert Chamber spearheaded the area demand for improved telephone service, which proved successful, and is among the leaders currently for improvement of Highway 111.

Junior College Site Possible

PALM DESERT — With an official decision still months away, it has been proposed that this community be rated the best possible choice for the new Desert Junior College, because of its location.

The Desert Junior College district comprises both the Coachella Valley and Palm Springs School Districts.

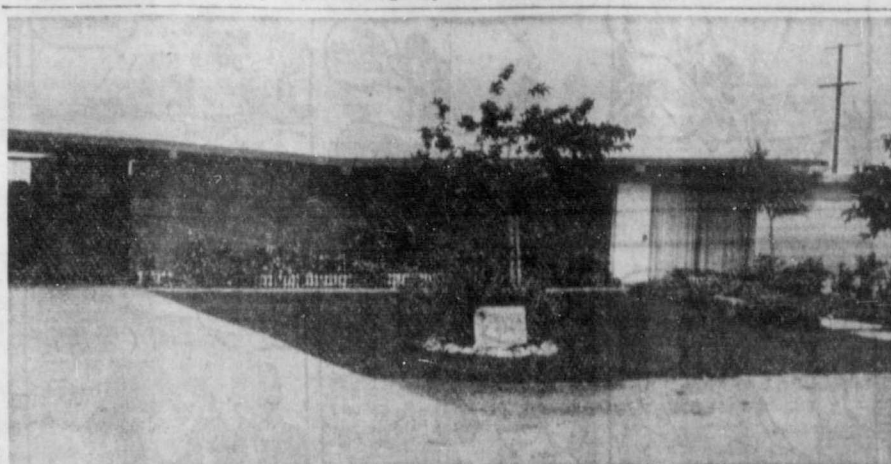

Preliminary meetings of the newly elected five-man board have been held at the Palm Desert Elementary School.

Little League Starts Sixth Season Tonight

Mayor to Toss Out First Ball

Palm Springs Little League will launch its sixth season at Polo Grounds tonight with appropriate opening ceremonies.

Mayor Frank Bogert will welcome the players and toss out the first ball. The Rev. William Blonden of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church will deliver the invocation.

Palm Springs Post, 519, American Legion, will present the Colors and the season will be under way.

FIRST GAME of tonight's double-header, slated to start at 6:45, will stack Hathaway-Buick against the Boys Club. In the second game the Cameron Stars will meet the Junior Police.

Games are scheduled every Monday and Friday night, all double headers.

Practice for the Minor League will be held nightly at the Rodeo Field diamond, Monday through Thursdays starting at 6 o'clock.

League play in the Minors will start the week after close of school.

ROSTERS of the four teams in the Little League, with their managers and coaches, follow:

Four Share Lead In Memphis Open

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Three professionals and a former Walker Cup player carried one-stroke leads into the second round of the $24,000 Memphis Invitational Golf Tournament today.

Oldtimer Chick Harbert, youngsters Jim Ferree and Ernie Vossler, and amateur Mason Rudolph each cut five strokes off par Thursday to finish the first round with 65's over the Colonial Country Club course.

Veteran Marty Furgol of Le-mont, Ill., was one shot back at 66.

Armstead Awarded Decision Over Uribe

LOS ANGELES. — Punching Paulie Armstead, 133½, Los Angeles, scored a split decision over Ezequiel Chiles Uribe, 136, Mexico, Thursday night in a 10-round main event at Olympic Auditorium.

Armstead, rated 10th in the lightweight division, never floored Uribe but hammered his Mexican opponent with a vicious body attack through most of the fight.

CRIPPLES PUT REDLEGS, ATHLETICS IN RUNNING

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
Kansas City and Cincinnati haven't had much to cheer about so far this spring but they certainly boast the season's healthiest-looking "cripples" in Ned Garver and George Crowe.

Both were huge question-marks this spring. Garver, hobbled by a lame arm, had won a total of six games over the last two years. And Crowe, groomed to replace Ted Kluszewski at first base, had a knee ailment that threatened to sideline him at the start of the season.

But today the 32-year-old Garver has a 4-1 record for the Athletics while Crowe has 21 runs batted in and a .367 batting average for the Redlegs.

Garver notched his fourth victory and second shutout Thursday when the Athletics scored a 3-0 victory over the Chicago White Sox. The loss left the White Sox in the American League cellar, 7½ games behind the front-running New York Yankees.

Crowe, who has been alternating with Steve Bilko at first, knocked in five runs with his third homer and two singles as the Redlegs snapped the Pittsburgh Pirates' six-game winning streak, 9-4. His .367 batting average is the third-highest in the league.

The Cleveland Indians whipped the Detroit Tigers, 8-5, in the only other AL game while the San Francisco Giants beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2, and the Los Angeles Dodgers scored a 4-2, 11-inning decision over the Chicago Cubs in other NL action.

Mike McCormick, 19-year-old $60,000 bonus lefty, went 8 2-3 innings for his third win of the season as the Giants' snapped the Cardinals' seven-game winning streak. McCormick needed help with two out in the ninth and Jim Constable struck out Don Blasingame to preserve the win. Willie Mays hit his ninth homer for the Giants, who trail the first-place Milwaukee Braves by 24 percentage points.

The Dodgers capitalized on slow fielding by Cub infielders to score two 11th-inning runs although they hit only one ball out of the infield. Clem Labine, making his first start since the 1956 World Series, pitched 10 innings for his first victory and Hersell Freeman took the loss. The victory snapped the Dodgers' six-game losing streak while the defeat was the Cubs' eighth in nine games.

Baltimore at New York in the AL and Milwaukee at Philadelphia in the NL were rained out.

OLYMPIC BOARD Makes it Tougher To Enter Events

TOKYO. — The International Olympic Committee started a move today to make the Olympic Games tougher for individual athletes to enter.

Avery Brundage, chairman of the IOC, announced after Thursday's session that a cutback was in the works which already had affected gymnastics, and possibly would involve track, field and swimming.

The number of persons entering gymnastics was cut from eight to five per team. Brundage said that the International Amateur Swimming Federation was studying a proposal for cutting down its number of entrants also while the International Amateur Athletic Federation was considering doing the same thing in track.

Brundage said that four of the five entrants in gymnastics would score.

The IAAF's decision on track and field would be made in Stockholm this summer, Brundage said.

"When interest in the Olympic Games is constantly growing, we must place a limit somewhere on the number of entries," Brundage said. "Building an Olympic village, for instance, to house 10,000 athletes would be prohibitive."

The track and field proposal calls for a nation entering only one man in each event, plus two more if they met certain standards.

The same swimming events would be held with a possible addition of a 400-meter relay for men and women.

Preakness Field To be Largest in 30 Years, Belief

BALTIMORE, Md. — Twelve horses, the largest Preakness field in 30 years, are expected to be entered today for Saturday's running of the Triple Crown classic that shapes up as a re-run of the Kentucky Derby.

Unconvinced that the Derby, run over a slippery muddy track, was a true test, the trainers of seven other starters from Churchill Downs were ready to give their charges another shot at Calumet Farm's winner, Tim Tam.

Back for another crack at Tim Tam will be Derby starters Lincoln Road 2nd; Noureddin 3rd; Jewel's Reward, 4th; Martins Rullah 5th; Chance II Tony 6th; Gone Fishin' 8th; and Silky Sullivan 12th.

Joining them will be Talent Show, Pilon, Michore and Liberty Ruler, who will run coupled with Jewel's Reward as the Maine Chance Farm entry.

Tim Tam remains the solid 7 to 5 favorite. Ismael Valenzuela, who won the Derby Trial and Derby with Tim Tam, once again will be in the saddle.

Record Field in U.S. Open Trials

NEW YORK. — A record 2,123 golfers will battle it out in qualifying rounds for 145 berths in the U. S. Open championship at Tulsa's Southern Hills Country Club, June 12-14.

The U. S. Golf Association actually received 2,140 entries before the deadline for filing Thursday night, but 17 players, including defending champion Dick Mayer, qualified automatically for the championship flight.

Hogan, Mosel in Narrow Lead in Greenbrier Play

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. — Veteran Ben Hogan and newcomer Stan Mosel held a narrow one-stroke lead over Sam Snead and Gary Player today as a big field headed into the second round of the $10,000 Greenbrier Open Golf Tournament.

The 45-year-old Hogan, playing in only his fourth tournament this year in his semi-retired status, and Mosel, 26, fired 65's in the opening 18 holes Thursday.

Snead, pushing 46, and Player, 22-year-old South African, barely missed making it a four-way tie. They had 66's on the par-71 Old White course at this mountain resort.

Four others were bracketed at 67 and three at 68.

McElhenry Signs Contract With S.F.

SAN FRANCISCO. — Half-back Hugh McElhenry signed his 1958 contract today with the San Francisco Forty Niners.

"This will be my seventh season in pro ball—and I hope it's a lucky one," McElhenry said.

OPTIMISTIC GIANT FANS APPLY FOR SERIES TICKETS

SAN FRANCISCO. — The Giants announced officially today that they "had been receiving a few" applications for World Series tickets.

Ticket manager Peter Hoffman said some San Francisco fans had written in, wanting to be first in line for tickets if the Giants should happen to get into the World Series.

"We just send them back announcing that we are not accepting applications at this time," said Hoffman. "What are they trying to do? Jinx us?"

Trial Runs Start At Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — At least half a dozen of the nation's most daring drivers were poised today to shatter the qualification records for the 500-mile Memorial Day Speedway auto race.

The 33-car field for the 42nd annual "500," with a jackpot of more than $300,000 at stake, will be weeded out in two weekends of time trials, beginning Saturday.

McElhenry Signs Contract With S.F.

SAN FRANCISCO. — Half-back Hugh McElhenry signed his 1958 contract today with the San Francisco Forty Niners.

"This will be my seventh season in pro ball—and I hope it's a lucky one," McElhenry said.

New Assault on Mile Record to Be Made Tonight

LOS ANGELES. — Australians Herb Elliott and Merv Lincoln led a new assault on the world's record of 3:58 minutes for the mile tonight in the 18th annual Coliseum Relays—the first major meet run on the grass in the nation.

At least 60,000 persons were expected to witness the season's second major relays meet. The grass track was a matter of necessity, since use of the stadium by the Dodgers for baseball has temporarily eliminated the cinder oval.

Hungarian Laszlo Tabori is another contestant who has run the distance in under four minutes. The mile field also included Norm Lloyd, Stanford; Bob Seaman, ex-UCLA star; Ted Wheeler, Iowa, and Joe Villarreal, Texas.

CARPENTER INKS CONTRACT

CLEVELAND, Ohio. — Preston Carpenter, an offensive end, has signed his 1958 contract with the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League.

Gardener's Checklist

1. Plant shrubs and trees from containers any time. Water and feed carefully to help them over the transplanting change.
2. Prune and shape evergreens of all kinds. A little careful work with the pruning shears will bring out the best in all shrubs.
3. Bait for earwigs if they weren't destroyed in the general garden clean-up.
4. A mulch of peat moss or weed-free manure conserves water, cools plants' roots and discourages weeds.
5. Water deeply. There is no sense at all to the light, frequent sprinkling practiced by some gardeners. Water must reach plants' roots.

Tallest Mosaic

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — (UP) — The world's tallest mosaic has been created by Thurston Munson for the Church of the Holy Cross at South Portland, Maine. It is seven feet wide and 94 feet tall, and contains more than 235,000 pieces of Venetian glass. It depicts the life of Christ from the nativity to the resurrection.

The Black Hills in western South Dakota are the highest mountains in the U. S. east of the Rockies.

LOS ANGELES. (UP) — Western Airlines paid its regular 20-cent dividend to stockholders today despite a shutdown in operations caused by a pilot's strike that began Feb. 21.

The airline reported an operational loss of $324,137 in the first quarter but realized a net income of $135,863 as a result of the sale of used aircraft.

Sportsmen to See Long Awaited Salton Sea Development as Resort Area May 17

SALTON CITY — The sportsman's long awaited development of Salton Sea as a resort area becomes a reality Saturday, May 17, with the opening of Salton City along a six mile shoreline of the famed sea.

A multi-million dollar resort development for Salton City is planned by the M. Penn Phillips Company, California's largest real estate development firm.

AMONG THE PROPOSED facilities of the new recreational city is a yacht harbor, hotel, golf course, marina, airport and a complete desert-sea shopping center.

The 340 square mile sea, created a half century ago by overflow waters from the Colorado River, has long been a sportsmen's paradise for boating, swimming and fishing.

UNTIL THE M. PENN Phillips Company finalized the acquisition of the 19,600 acre site last year in one of California's largest land purchases, no major development of the Salton Sea area had ever been created.

It was the Phillips Company who in the last three years developed the 23,000 acre resort community of Hesperia. They also played a leading role in the growth of Azusa, San Fernando Valley, Clear Lake, Palmdale and Lancaster.

Bedding Plants Are Abundant During Mid-May

There are so many annual bedding plants available in mid-May, that home gardeners can find one for any need. Stock, zinnias, petunias, snapdragons, marigolds, pansies — the list is long and lush!

Annuals have several marvelous qualities in their favor, notes the California Association of Nurserymen, and the speed with which they show their glories is not the least of these admired attributes. Bedding plants in flats at local nurseries are ready to burst into bloom in a week, or a few weeks, or a month; the time can be selected by the gardener practically at will.

The choice of flower can be difficult since the gardener usually has a predetermined site selected. He must get a flower which will enjoy the cultural conditions that will be provided and he must consider the height and texture of the plant in relation to the intended surroundings. Color should be no problem since annuals have a wide range of lovely hues.

Annuals brought home from the local nursery should be planted in soil which has been conditioned to receive them. Most annuals want soil that is medium rich or rich in nutrients, light in texture, moist and well-drained. This means the gardener ought to work the soil loose, mix in fertilizer before planting, and water carefully after planting. Since some plants like a little special treatment, such as overhead spraying for pansies, gardeners would do well to get instructions from their nurserymen.

Although it sometimes eats fruit, the bulk of the diet of the redbellied woodpecker is composed of injurious forest insects.

Now when the vacationers are heading out . . . by air, land and sea . . . with destinations as varied as possible . . . for they head for all parts of the globe . . . long-time desert devotees are heading for Palm Springs . . . They have learned through the years . . . that May and June can be the nicest months of the year in Palm Springs . . . Things are slowing down a bit . . . Clubs and organizations are going dark for the summer . . . and committee meetings are about over . . . Parties have moved out of doors . . . and life is getting more leisurely between weekends . . . Even those gaily-colored postcards that are brightening the mail . . . only evoke pleasure to be right here in Palm Springs . . .

Latest victim of electric carts is Winsome Courtney . . . who wound up with a broken toe . . . just on the eve of closing her shop . . . and heading for Hollywood Park to attend the races . . . going to Chicago to visit friends and then to New York where several welcome home parties had been planned for her . . . Now Winsome, who can't see herself arriving in New York barefooted, doesn't know what to do . . . Florence Murphy has suggested that she just keep her shop open . . . and put up a "Distress Sale" sign . . . The way it happened . . . Winsome had been following a foursome . . . Abe Lipsey, Kent Hayes, Milt Hicks and Eric Monti . . . in the Local Yokel play . . . She started to leave . . . the brake didn't work . . . or did or something . . . and she got tossed out into the bushes . . .

Ginny Simms in back in her Village home . . . fresh from successful singing engagements in Miami and in New Orleans . . .

A postcard with beautiful Spanish stamps . . . comes from Jock Williamson's sister Margaret Drummond . . . who didn't get to Palm Springs for her usual visit this winter . . . She's been visiting another brother-in-law, Southern Rhodesia and sailing all around Africa visiting interesting places like Suez, Aden, Mombasa, Zanzibar, Victoria Falls . . . aboard the Dunnottar Castle . . . Says she will be here next winter . . .

Saw Muriel and Lee Bering at a party the other night . . . and she's doing the interior for that model house at Enchanted Homes . . . that will have its preview showing next Sunday afternoon . . . This is what she used to do in Los Angeles . . . and, of course, she did the Tennis Club redecoration a few years back . . .

Dr. George and Lee Kaplan are among Villagers going abroad this summer . . . They leave here June 2 for Chicago where he will take a course in Cardiology at Cook County Hospital . . . then they go on to New York and fly out on July 2 . . . They'll visit Brussels for the Worlds Fair . . . and tour France, Switzerland, Italy, England . . . arriving back in New York August 7 . . . They'll be back in Palm Springs in mid-September . . .

This is the time of the year . . . when the weekend is crowded with social events . . . planned to catch the weekend crowd . . . and this coming weekend is right in the swing . . .

Tonight is the Oriental costume party which Marcia and George Barrett are hosting at their home on Driftwood Drive . . . and that evening too . . . Ray Shelby is hosting a few friends at cocktails . . . as a welcome home party for Leona (Mrs. Fred) Halliday . . . who's home from Washington D. C. and Havana . . . The Hallidays are across-the-street neighbors of Ray's . . .

Evelyn and Sydney Schiff will be hosting a dinner party tonight . . . which will probably be their last one in their beautiful Santa Rosa home . . . where they have entertained at so many delightful parties . . . The house is noted for its elaborate interiors, including crystal chandeliers, floor-to-ceiling murals in the room and a half high livingroom . . . and its gardens which are rated among the most outstanding in the Village . . .

The house has been sold to the Herman Ritters . . . He's the newspaper publisher from Long Beach . . . and the Schiffs will be headquartered at their bungalow at the Racquet Club . . . when they come back next fall . . .

President Of Pen Women Wins Award

A newly formed Palm Springs Branch of American Pen Women has brought special honors to the Desert Art Center of Coachella Valley, Inc. Marjory Adams, of Laguna Beach, president of the group, won a 2nd prize award in traditional oil painting at the Biennial Convention in Washington, D. C. This was the only award given in the state of California.

Now It's The Chemise Chair

No need to worry about sitting down in a chemise. Furniture designers have solved that awkward problem.

They have come up with a "chemise" chair, made for the woman who finds chemise skirts too tight to sit down gracefully. The chair, displayed at the International Furniture Design Show here, has a higher seat, foam-rubber cushions and swivel and rocking action.

Mrs. Stermer Entertains at Patio Party

Palm Springs weather was at its best Wednesday noon when guests arrived at the luncheon given in the newly decorated patio dining room of the Joseph A. Stermer home on S. Calle Rolph. Flowers completely surrounded the patio where pink rose bouquets decorated the smartly appointed luncheon tables.

Guests included Mmes. Herbert Burns, Grace Steenberg, Earle Arnold, Thomas Holland, Francis Pruitt, Robert Olmsted (who is returning to Palm Springs and building a beautiful new house in Deep Well), William McCarty, Val Blatz, Roy W. Burton, Clare Kinne, Stanley Jones, George Smith, Thurmond Arnold, William Kraw, Howard Matthews, Jack Peters, Frank Sorensen and Miss Hazel Gross. Bridge was played in the afternoon with Mrs. Clare Kinne winning high score.

Those Gloves

From Paris comes a long and fascinating glove. It's made of black taffeta, topped with a large flat bow, ending with a long stream of taffeta that floats around the shoulders like a stole. Wear a plain long glove on the other hand.

Legion Plans Filipino Night

Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion will hold its annual Filipino Night on Thursday, May 29. Eddie Macavinta, who has for many years past presided at the roasting of the pig, is chairman for the affair, which will offer real Philippine feed.

Job's Daughters Install Sunday

Palm Springs Bethel 186 International Order of Job's Daughters will hold its 21st installation of officers at the Masonic Temple on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

Adelle Zanville will be installed as Honored Queen; Lynn Simon as Senior Princess; Lynn Howeth, Junior Princess; Lynn Giligan, Guide; Doris Sing, Marshal. Judy Cornelius will act as installing officer.

Hotel Assn. Elects New Directors

Mayor Frank Bogert, whose ideas for a new format for Desert Circus have been much publicized this week, again brought up the subject when he addressed the Hotel and Apartment Owners Association at their annual banquet and election at Desert Inn Wednesday evening.

He said this year's Desert Circus was a terrific success, particularly from a publicity standpoint. He thought however, that if the community is to have a really successful event it will have to be held during the season when there are people here and give up the idea of trying to prolong the season through Desert Circus Week. The only way to prolong the season is through conventions, the mayor said.

Citing the vexing problem of air travel to Palm Springs as something to contend with this year, the Mayor pointed out the difference in air service between El Paso ("not even a resort town") which has 12 planes a day, while Palm Springs has "just a little jerkwater run from Los Angeles here." And then we wind up with Bonanza, he added, expressing appreciation for Bonanza's service. He concluded on a hopeful note saying that "we're going to have an air line to Palm Springs."

With president John Miller conducting the meeting, votes were collected and counted and the following nine directors elected: Jerry Bunker, Jack Heidt, Lynne Jennings, Harold Kester, Jessie Manifold, Dewey Metzendorf, Harry Paisley, John Miller, Bob Tallafra. Directors will elect their own officers later.

Harry Paisley made the annual report on the Referral Bureau. An array of door prizes went to the following persons: George Beebe, Winnie Orr, Summer Slater, Ann O'Dell, Harry Taylor, Orpho Myer, Shirlee Cooper, Eddie Davidson, Mrs. Lloyd Jones, Mrs. Adolph Muller, Mrs. Nita Lucas, Mrs. R. W. Peterson, Ruth Hardy, Esther Jacobsen, Leonard Wolf, Mrs. Axel Linus, Walter Freund, Frank Bogert, Roy Miller.

Minted Carrots

Carrots lend themselves well to fancy but budget-minded menus. Try this recipe for mint-glazed carrots. Simmer 3 cups cooked carrot strips in 1-3 cup butter or margarine, ¼ cup sugar and 1 teaspoon mint jelly until glazed.

ENDING THEIR TERMS of office, vice president Stan Doyle, secretary Jessie Manifold and president John Miller were in charge of the annual banquet and election of officers of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Owners Association held at Desert Inn Wednesday evening.

Redlands Bowl Celebrates 35th Anniversary This Year

In honor of the 35th anniversary of Redlands Bowl, this summer there will be a total of 21 events, introducing the new Redlands Bowl Festival Orchestra, with Harry Farberman from St. Louis and Springfield, Ill. as musical director.

Mrs. George Emmett Mullen, the Bowl's founder - president, announced that there will be five nights of symphony, five of opera and light opera, three of ballet, six concerts by world-famous artists and two evenings of "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

As usual, through requirements of the American Federation of Musicians and the Music Performance Trust Funds, all performances will be open to the public without charge. The $35,000 budget for the 35th season will be paid for through memberships, donations, industrial and individual sponsorships and allocations from the Trust Funds. Persons desiring a complete resume of the season should write Redlands Community Music Assn., P. O. Box 466, Redlands, California.

The season opens July 1 with Farberman conducting the orchestra, with the young American soprano, Marilyn Horne, returning from a fabulous two years in Europe as soloist.

The second opening event will be "A Midsummer Night's Dream" with a cast of 200 July 4 and 5, with Edward C. Tritt conducting and with Albert and Bertha Johnson directing and Joyce Neal Hardy as choreographer.

This summer's pre-season event June 24, will feature the Redlands Bowl audition winners, Georgia Bunker Warden, soprano, Pomona; Daniel C. Dubois, piano, Riverside; Horace Mochizuki, violin, Redlands; Anne Ware, piano, San Bernardino; and Bill Pinkerton, violin, Highland.

Opera and light opera nights will include "The Bartered Bride," "Tosca" (with Jane McGowan in the title role), directed by Glynn Ross and conducted by Curtis Stearns; "The Mikado," directed by the Johnsons and conducted by Tritt; and "Vignettes of Opera," conducted by Robert La Marchina, with Margery MacKay, Dolores Davis, Alfred Jensen and Donald Stenberg.

Dance evenings will be "A Night in Vienna," with Stephen Papich as choreographer; Ballet Celeste of San Francisco, presenting Delibes' complete "Coppelia;" and Lola Montes and Her Spanish Dancers.

Concert and recital evening guests and orchestral soloists will include Virginia MacWatters, "Met" soprano; Jerome Hines, "Met" basso; John Charles Thomas conducting the Apple Valley Romanians; Marais and Miranda, balladeers; Alice Schoenfeld, violinist; Larra Browning Henderson, dramatic soprano, soloist on "Elinor Marlo Night;" the violin-piano duo of Eugene List and Carroll Glenn; Edith Schiller, pianist; Grace Bumbry, contralto; and Jakob Gimpel, pianist.

Certain time is always 8:15 p.m. Tuesday and Friday are the regular evenings, with two special ones on Saturday. Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. Wilbur H. Schowalter will lead 45 minutes of community singing, with Ruth Grinnell Fowler at the piano.

Secret Pals Revealed at Last Meeting

Thirty members of the Palm Springs Business Woman's Club attended their secret pal revelation party Monday evening held in the board room of the Chamber of Commerce. The party was combined with a short business meeting which will be the last until October.

A table laden with beautifully-wrapped packages brought expressions of delight as each girl opened her package, after first trying to guess the identity of her secret pal.

The evening was topped off with a delicious dessert served by Lola Wacek, Sally Orit and Virgie Dragicovich.

Weekend Conferences Set by Arts Foundation

The schedule of Weekend Conferences and programs for the summer season has been completed at the Idyllwild Arts Foundation, Idyllwild, and is now available to those wishing to register.

Many of last year's registrants have already reserved places for this season and it has been necessary in the cases of the Folk Music and Contemporary Dance programs to have two separate weekends for each to meet the great interest and heavy registration in those departments.

A UNIQUE INNOVATION last season was the Sampler Weekend, so successful it is being repeated this year. During this weekend, June 27 to 29, registrants enjoy short term experiences in the arts, music, drama, dance, conservation, natural science and the out-of-doors.

A new Weekend program being offered for the first time this season is the Photography Weekend on June 20 to 22. Ansel Adams, distinguished San Francisco photographer will direct this program.

PARTICIPATING IN the two Folk Music Weekends will be such well known figures as Peter Seeger, Bess Lomax Hawes, Sam Hinton, Beatrice Krone, Kurt Miller, and Josef Marais and Miranda.

Famous names in the world of contemporary dance who will conduct conferences and present programs are Eugene Loring, Bella Lewitsky, Karen Burt and Virginia Tanner.

The Fine Arts Weekend will present Harry Sternberg, Susan Peterson, Donald Kachinskas, Lora Steer and Vincent Lanier.

WEEKEND CONFERENCE sessions of the Idyllwild Arts Foundation, Idyllwild, have been announced for the summer season. One of the features is the Sampler Weekend, June 27 to 29, when registrants (pictured above) enjoy short term experiences in the arts, music, drama, dance, conservation, natural science and the out-of-doors.

Freeway Link Agreement Given Board Approval!

The Board of Supervisors has approved an agreement with the Division of Highways covering the U.S. 60-70-99 freeway linking the Indio and Thousand Palms providing a four-lane facility from Indio to Beaumont.

The agreement provides in part for construction of a frontage road from Burr Street to Adams Street along the south side of the freeway. Ernie Dunlevie of Bermuda Dunes urged the immediate improvement of 40th Avenue between Washington and Adams. Bermuda Dunes will be cut off from Highway 60 with the closing of the Adams crossing by the freeway. Dunlevie said the additional mile of improved road would provide access to and from Bermuda Dunes will be cut off from Highway 60. His request was referred to the planning commission.

Burning Permits Are Available As of Today

Burning permits will be issued again as of today, and will be available at both fire stations in Palm Springs until Oct. 1. The City Council acted last week in establishing the new burning date from May 15 to Oct. 1, to help with the ever-mounting problem of cleaning up the residential areas before the start of summer vacations.

Burning hours are from 8 a.m. until noon daily, outside the downtown area. Permits are renewable every two weeks.

'GENERAL JOHN' KEEPS CHAWING AWAY AT AGE 112

SLANT, Va. (AP) — John Salling, still chewing two plugs of tobacco a week and going strong as one of two surviving Civil War veterans, celebrates his 112th birthday today.

"General John," as he's called in the mountains of southwest Virginia took the event in stride as several hundred friends and visiting dignitaries prepared to visit his hillside cabin on the Clinch River only a mile or two from where he was born May 15, 1846.

Clothes Lenders
Tend to Dominate Others

THE friend who always tries to lend you wearing apparel may not be the meek, outgoing person she wants to portray, psychologists claim. She could be a dominant dame who'd like to have you under obligation.

BUT you're under no obligation whatever when you call FA 5-5005 for a Desert Sun Classified ad-writer! She gladly helps you word your ads to step up results — and she enjoys doing it.

RELIABLE summer care of your home, in exchange for use of garage or carport for dead storage of two cars. Locally employed and bonded. Ed Allen Manager, La Donna Hotel.

PUC Sets Opening Hearing For Telephone Rate Raise

The California Public Utilities Commission today set for opening public hearing in the matter of the application of California Water & Telephone Company for authority to increase its rates and charges for telephone service.

Commissioner Matthew J. Doolley and Examiner Manley W. Edwards will preside at the hearing which will be held Thursday, June 26, at 10 a.m. in the Commission Courtroom, Mirror Building, 145 South Spring Street, Los Angeles.

At this time and place, or at subsequent hearings, all interested parties may appear and be heard.

The Colosseum, the Pantheon, and other famous Roman structures were built from a mixture of volcanic ash and slaked lime.

Don't Abandon Pets, Is Animal League Appeal

Officers of the Palm Springs Animal Protective League today issued an appeal to desert area pet owners, urging them not to abandon their animals when they leave the resort for the summer.

League officials pointed out that the city's animal shelter facilities are insufficient to care for the animals left behind by departing residents and visitors.

NORTH PALM SPRINGS

By ORPHA GEIER
The organization for incorporation of North Palm Springs has established campaign headquarters in Welcome Hall, corner of Indian Avenue and Dillon Road, where petitions are available as well as information for anyone interested.

Nellie Maronville of Artesia, who owns property in North Palm Springs, was out over the weekend on a business and pleasure trip. She plans on building a home here and is very much interested in incorporation.

Other weekend visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ermish, former property owners in Desert Hot Springs. The Ermishes are in business in Banning.

Jimmie Goforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Goforth, who is attending a communications school at Lackland Air Force Base in Texas, received his first stripe April 30. In a Mother's Day message to his mother, Jimmie says he "sure misses California climate."

Little Miss Elaine Ruiz celebrated her fifth birthday on Friday with a party for 15 little guests at the home of her parents, Pete and Charlotte Ruiz, on Louise Street. After a "play time" with games and prizes the group was served ice cream and

Oldest Tavern

NEWPORT, R. I. — (UP) — The nation's oldest tavern, still in business, is probably the White Horse Tavern of Newport. Built before 1763 and known to have had a tavern license as early as 1687, it closed its doors shortly after the turn of this century but is now in operation again, thanks to the Preservation Society of Newport County.
